

Fall Regional Retail Meeting - October 8-10, 2017 Jacksonville, Florida

Greg Tison and his staff at the Jacksonville Farmers Market, will host the NAPMM Fall retail meeting October 8-10 at the Lexington Hotel Downtown Jacksonville. The meeting hotel is located approximately 12 miles from the airport and is convenient to shopping and a variety of restaurants and attractions. Come early or stay late and enjoy all the Jacksonville area has to offer from beautiful beaches to championship golf courses.

The Jacksonville Farmers market is owned and operated by Beaver Street Fisheries, the world's largest supplier of warm water lobster tails and a variety of other seafood. The meeting will include a tour of their state of the art facility. The market itself, is one of the largest retail farmers markets in the southeast with over 100 vendors. A tour of the market will include an overview of a major renovation planned for the site. The meeting will also feature plenty of time for networking and exploring the area.

This meeting is geared towards retail markets, but has components that should interest others as well. The deadline to register for the Fall meeting and to make your hotel reservation is FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 8
